WHISTLE-BLOWING

We are committed to conducting our activities honestly and with integrity at all times and we expect our volunteers and staff to maintain high standards. We do however, acknowledge that all organisations face the risk of things going wrong from time to time or of unknowingly harbouring illegal or unethical conduct.

We believe we have a duty to take appropriate measures to identify such situations and attempt to remedy them. By encouraging a culture of openness and accountability within the organisation, we believe we can help prevent such situations occurring.

Please report any wrongdoing that falls short of these fundamental principles. If you have concerns about malpractice within WRAS please raise these with your Volunteer Manager immediately. Your concern might relate to matters such as criminal activity, miscarriages of justice, danger to health and safety, damage to the environment, failure to comply with any legal or professional obligation or regulatory requirement, bribery or the deliberate concealment of any such matters.

We hope that you will feel able to voice whistle-blowing concerns openly, however, if you want to raise your concern confidentially, we will make every effort to keep your identity secret.
